2011 Men's Retreat

October 14th ~ 16th

Union Congregational Church
First Congregational Church

Our new retreat center offers excellent food, wooded hiking trails and a perfect place to think, to play, to be alone, to deepen friendships.

Sorry!
No Women.

Our discussions will concentrate on how men grapple with every day challenges of life such as relationships, work, stress, aging, and where we find meaning. A major resource will be the story of the Prodigal Son....looking to find life. Where do we find God and what does God desire to do through me? Our discussions will be reflective and will be fun.

Bill Lutz will be the facilitator.

Bill, a member of Union Church, was the founder/executive director of the Montclair Counseling Center until his retirement in 2000. He is currently associate minister at Marble Collegiate Church. His responsibilities include Marble's men's ministry and co leading retreats with Doug Wysocky-Johnson. His background includes a Doctorate in Pastoral Psychology .

Whats happening?

Starts Friday evening with supper
October 14th

We enjoy a great day together on Saturday

We eat great food all weekend

We gather around the fire
Saturday evening

We close with a communion service and lunch on Sunday.

We return home refreshed and renewed.

What to Bring?

Comfortable clothes—including something suitable for an October day outdoors... Favorite snack food and beverage for our happy time around the fire What to leave behind: Anxieties, chores and guilty feelings...

What you'll take home?

Deeper friendships... New ideas... and maybe some personal goals... A sense of direction, harmony and wellbeing. A load of new energy and some new stories, a few secrets, and a song in your heart

The NEW site is Crossroads, near Chester, NJ. It's not far, takes about an hour from Union. We'll set up car pools to get you there or you can drive yourself.

The cost is $170.⁰⁰ per person. Scholarships are available.
